Dear Diary

It was a special day for me –my 12th birthday. Since I was quite excited, I had got up at 6 am. I went straight to my grandparents and parents, touched their feet and sought their blessings. Papa and mumma hugged me, kissed me on my forehead and gave me my favourite storybooks. WE went to the temple. A small party was also held in the evening. I can't forget those lovely moments.

Environmental pollution

Environmental pollution is now a global problem. It is a great danger to human life. There is air, water and sound pollution. Air pollution is caused by vehicles and factories' smoke. It contains carbon monoxide and carbon dioxide. These cause diseases like asthma. Factories release poisonous water into rivers. This pollutes the water. It is not fit for drinking. It causes various water borne diseases. The sound pollution is caused by music shops, vehicle horns and loudspeakers. People become deaf. Their blood pressure rises. It causes heart failure. So environmental pollution is dangerous.

Ideal Teacher

The ideal persons are rare in life. It is more so in the field of education. An ideal teacher is one who loves to learn and to teach. His mission in life is teaching. He sacrifices his everything for the cause of education. He is always giving everything to his students. He has no interest in money or power. His only aim in life is to teach his students to be good persons. An ideal teacher is above worldly pleasure. He is like a saint who serves people selflessly.

Without language and appropriate use of words it is almost impossible to imagine the beautiful world. Words and the art of expression help to express thoughts. The poet says that words are the vehicles of thoughts. Thoughts die if one does not know how to express it. So one should learn and build up their vocabulary. To learn the style of express thoughts but words must match.

The poet says that English is an interesting language so everybody should read or learn it. It will help you to express ideas clearly beautifully and effectively. Due to lack of appropriate words many ideas are not expressed.

According to the poet words act as food and dress of thoughts. Everybody around the globe wishes to hear fresh and lovely ideas. Only words have power to set thoughts free. Therefore, the poet suggests everyone to put those thoughts into words, so that they do not die after staying bound in the prison behind your eyes. (Any relevant content)
