

THE RAVEN AND THE FOX

Let us do these activities before we read.

1. We know that frogs croak. Did you know that ravens also croak?
2. Which animal is shown to be cunning in stories? Circle the correct answer.
 (a) tiger (b) fox (c) bear

Let us read

Mr Raven was perched upon a limb,
 And Reynard the Fox looked up at him;
 For the Raven held in his great big beak,
 A morsel the Fox would go far to seek.
 Said the Fox, in admiring tones: "My word!
 Sir Raven, you are a handsome bird.
 Such feathers! If you would only sing,
 The birds of these woods would call you King."

The Raven, who did not see the joke,
Forgot that his voice was just a croak.
He opened his beak, in his foolish pride—
And down fell the morsel the Fox had eyed.

“Ha-ha!” laughed the Fox. “And now you know,
Ignore sweet words that make you glow.
Pride, my friend, is rather unwise;
I’m sure this teaching is quite a surprise.”

Let us learn

1. Write the rhyming words from the poem. One has been done for you.

Stanza 1

(a) limb-him

(b) _____

Stanza 2

(a) word-_____

(b) _____

Stanza 3

(a) joke-_____

Alliteration is a repetition of consonant sounds at the beginning of words. When two or more words together, begin with the same sound, it is called alliteration.

Now, pick another example of alliteration from Stanza 2.

3. Choose the correct opposites from the box given below and complete the table. There are two extra words that you will not need.

wise happy humility flew remembered
notice dim cried silly

Words	Opposites
1. perched
2. forgot
3. foolish
4. pride
5. laughed
6. ignore
7. glow

Use any four words from the table given above to make sentences of your own.

Let us speak

Narrate the poem in the form of a story. Give a different ending to the story. You may begin like this:

This is a story about a clever fox named Reynard and Mr Raven. One day...

Let us write

Now, write the story you narrated in the form of a conversation.

(Remember to write only the actions for the Raven as he has food in his mouth and does not speak.)

You may begin like this.

Reynard: Good morning, Mr Raven! You seem to be awake so early!

(Mr Raven just nods his head)

Reynard: Oh, Mr Raven, you look ...

Origami is an art of folding objects out of paper to create both two-dimensional and three-dimensional objects.

Let us make stick puppets and enact the poem. You may take the help of the pictures given below.

Note: You may use the puppets while narrating the story.
